Mansfield Backs Rusk on Sec

Mike Mansfield said yesterday at any time."

Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.), told the Senate the Committee that Secretary of State Dean Rusk should testify publicly Wednesday to invite Mr. John but wanted to meet personally on Vietnam but he is willing to son to instruct Rusk to appear with the President at the subordinate that sentiment in publicly before the Committee White House.

supercinate that senument in publicly before the Committee view of circumstances.

The Montana Democrat, a Mansfield conceded that member of the Senate Forthere is a "good argument" in Foreign Relations Committee, the Committee's feeling that which has asked President, since Rusk and Defense Secretary with Germany and a verbatim Johnson to send Rusk up to tary Robert S. McNamara testify in public, told reportans wered questions on Viet.

The Montana Democrat, a Mansfield conceded that more resident willow from the Committee's feeling that to discuss the peace treaty with Germany and a verbatim transcript of the session was named public, afterwards.

The Montana Democrat, a Mansfield conceded that in 1919, President Wilson met with the Foreign Relations Committee with Germany and a verbatim transcript of the session was named public, afterwards.

The Montana Democrat, a Mansfield conceded that in 1919, President Wilson met with the Foreign Relations Committee with Germany and a verbatim transcript of the session was named public, afterwards.

The Montana Democrat, a Mansfield conceded that in 1919, President Wilson met with the Foreign Relations Committee with Germany and a verbatim transcript of the session was named public, afterwards.

The Montana Democrat, a Mansfield conceded that in 1919, President Wilson met with the Foreign Relations Committee with the House.

The Montana Democrat, a Mansfield conceded that in 1919, President Wilson met with the Foreign Relations Committee with the House.

The Montana Democrat, a Mansfield conceded that in 1919, President Wilson met with the House.

The Montana Democrat, a Montana President Wilson met with the House.

The Montana Democrat, a Montana President Wilson met with the House.

The Montana Democrat, a Montana President Wilson met with the House.

The Montana Democratic head of the House of the Wilson met with the House.

The Montana Democratic head of the House of the Wilson met with the House met with the House met with the House met with the House met with the Asia) it might be better and program, he should be willing more appropriate if he ap to appear before the Commit-

United Press International peared in executive seession, tee to answer Senators' ques-Senate Democratic Leader He has said he would do that tions.